

FMRRCHall of Fame Selection Process

General:

Election to the Fulmont Roadrunners Club Hall of Fame is deemed to be the highest honor that can be bestowed upon an FMRRC member. The purpose of this document is to formalize the process for nominating and electing members to this distinguished body.

Administration:

The process is administered by a Nomination/ Selection Committee chaired by the club president and including the vice president and secretary. These three, along with the immediate past president of the club and members of the FMRRCHall of Fame* constitute the Election Committee, whose job it is to evaluate the candidates. The Hall of Fame members on this committee need not be active in the club.

Process:

Nominations for Hall of Fame membership may be made by any and all active club members. They will be solicited via the club newsletter and website in the fall of the year at the same time as nominations for the club's traditional recognition awards are requested. Nominations for Hall of Fame membership must be in writing and mailed or email to the chair of the Nominating Committee (the sitting club president). The nominations must summarize the nominee's qualifications bearing in mind the basic criteria outlined below.

The Nomination/ Selection Committee will review submissions for Hall of Fame membership and prepare a ballot containing the names of all who meet the basic criteria. These ballots will be mailed or emailed to all members of the Election Committee along with copies of the nominating letters, asking members of that Committee if they feel the candidates are worthy of membership or not, and inviting comments. At least two weeks will be allowed for a response. Based on these responses, the three-person Nomination/ Selection Committee will decide if candidates are to be inducted into the Hall of Fame or not.

Criteria:

The primary criteria for membership in the FMRRCHall of Fame are service to the club and running community as a whole. A nominee's individual achievements as a runner also are to be considered. Nominations are to be limited to living club members, and only active members may be considered.

Recognition:

Hall of Fame inductees will be recognized at the club's annual awards banquet. They will receive a plaque highlighting their achievements, a jacket distinguishing them as Hall of Fame members, and any other recognition the Nomination/ Selection Committee deems appropriate.

* Current HOF members include C.W. Austin, Darryl Ferguson, Jim Louison, Jim Moore, Joyce Poulin, Joe Rzeznik, and Larry Vickers.
